UM OFFERS SEX EDUCATION COURSE

MISSOULA--

A course in sex education titled "Sex and Sexuality" will be offered June 29-July 2 by the Department of Health and Physical Education at the University of Montana.

It will be taught by Tom Whiddon, associate professor of health and physical education at UM, and Donna Taylor, coordinator of the Sexuality Program at the Missoula Rehabilitation Center and instructor at the Salish-Kootenai Community College, Pablo. Taylor, formerly with Planned Parenthood, has conducted sex education workshops throughout the state.

The course carries two undergraduate or graduate credits in health and physical education. It focuses on the development of a curriculum applicable to various instructional levels. It complements the home economics offering titled "Human Sexuality and Family Life Education."

Information on course content may be obtained by calling Whiddon at 243-4211.

Summer session bulletins containing application forms and information about summer offerings are available from the Summer Programs Office, 125 Main Hall, University of Montana, Missoula, MT 59812; (406) 243-2900. Former UM students should contact the Office of Admissions, (406) 243-6266, for information about re-application.
